27. “Vote-by-mail” means any method of voting in which a voter casts a ballot received in the mail.

28. “Voter” means any registered voter in Texas and all persons who may properly register to vote in Texas by the close of discovery in this case.

29. “Voter assistance” means any conduct permitted under Section 64.0321 of the Texas Election Code or required by Sections 203 and 208 of the Voting Rights Act, 52 U.S.C. §§ 10503, 10508.

30. “You” and “your” means Intervenors Harris County Republican Party, Dallas County Republican Party, Republican National Committee, National Republican Senatorial Committee, or National Republican Congressional Committee, including their current and former employees, officers, attorneys, agents, trustees, investigators, representatives, contractors, consultants, or other persons or entities acting on Intervenors’ behalf or subject to Intervenors’ control.

INSTRUCTIONS

31. You shall produce materials and serve responses and any objections within 30 days after service of these Requests for Production.

32. If you object to any part of a request, set forth the basis of your objection and respond to all parts of the request to which you do not object. Any ground not stated in a timely objection is waived.

33. If, in responding to these Requests for Production, you encounter any ambiguities when construing a request or definition, set forth the matter deemed ambiguous and the construction used in responding.

34. Regarding any document withheld from production on a claim of privilege or work product protection, provide a written privilege log identifying each document individually and containing all information required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5), including a description of the basis of the claimed privilege and all information necessary for Plaintiffs to assess the claim of privilege.

35. Produce all documents available to you or subject to your access or control that are responsive to the following document production topics. This includes documents in your actual or constructive possession or control and in the actual or constructive possession or control of your attorneys, investigators, experts, and anyone else acting on your behalf.

36. Documents are to be produced as they are kept in the ordinary course of business. Accordingly, documents should be produced in their entirety, without abbreviation, redaction, or expurgation; file folders with tabs or labels identifying documents responsive to this subpoena should be produced intact with the documents; and documents attached to each other should not be separated.

37. Documents are to be produced in accordance with the Stipulated Order Regarding Discovery of Electronically Stored Information (“ESI Agreement”) (ECF 251).

38. Each request and subparagraph thereof are to be answered separately. To the extent that you do not have any documents reflecting the information requested herein, and/or any means of recording the information requested herein, please so indicate in your response to the specific production request.

39. Each document produced should be categorized by the number of the document request in response to which it is produced.

40. If any otherwise responsive document was, but is no longer, in existence or in your possession, custody, or control, identify the type of information contained in the document, its current or last known custodian, the location/address of such document, and the identity of all persons having knowledge or who had knowledge of the document, and also describe in full the circumstances surrounding its disposition from your possession or control.

41. These Requests are continuing in nature, up to and including the course of trial. Materials sought by these Requests that become available after you serve your responses must be disclosed to counsel for Plaintiffs by supplementary response or responses.

42. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(e), you are under a duty to promptly amend your responses to these Requests if you learn that an answer is in some material respect incomplete or incorrect. If you expect to obtain further information or expect the accuracy of a response given to change between the time responses are served and the time of trial, you are requested to state this fact in each response.

43. If you contend that it would be unreasonably burdensome to obtain and provide all of the documents called for in response to any document request or any subsection thereof, then in response to the appropriate document request: (a) produce all such documents as are available to you without undertaking what you contend to be an unreasonable request; (b) describe with particularity the efforts made by you or on your behalf to produce such documents; and (c) state with particularity the grounds upon which you contend that additional efforts to produce such documents would be unreasonable.

44. The singular form of a noun or pronoun includes the plural form, and the plural form includes the singular.

45. The connectives “and” and “or” shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of a document production topic all responses that otherwise might be construed to be outside its scope.

46. A reference to an entity in this request shall be construed to include its officers, directors, partners, members, managers, employees, representatives, agents, consultants, and anyone acting on its behalf.
